Report

Department of commerce, Sri G.V.G Visalakshi College for women in association with United Training services India under Bombay Stock Exchange Banner organized Investors Awareness Programme on 18th August, 2022 at 10:30 AM. The Resource person Mr.Khaleel, NIISM certified senior, BFSI IAP Trainer enlightened the participants on the topic "Empowering Investors through Education ". He explained about BSE – India's leading exchange, its history, BSE – IPF (BSE – Investor Protection Fund) and the need and importance of savings. He gave a detailed view about the different investment avenues and pros & cons of each avenue. He advised that before investing in mutual funds, an analysis needs to be made on returns, expense ratio, size of fund, portfolio composition etc. He discussed about various risk categories. He suggested some of the websites like Morning star.in, Money control.in to know more about the companies performance for investment. He mapped the mutual fund to individual goals. He also specified the plan and the terms of investment. The webinar was attended by 155 students from B.Com and M.Com.
