Beneficiaries : 55 Students + 4 faculties

Resource Persons:

Shri M. Anisha Kalkoon IFS

Shri V. Thirunavukarasu IFS

Forest college, Coimbatore.

Undergraduate zoology students visited Central academy for state forest service Coimbatore at forest college, Coimbatore on 06.10.2023. Resource persons highlighted the significance of national wildlife week celebrations coinciding with Mahatma Gandhi's birthday, as he stood as a symbol of non-violence. He elaborated on the crucial role that wildlife plays in maintaining environmental equilibrium. He pointed out several crucial biological processes in which wildlife plays a central role, including pollination, germination, seed dispersal, soil regeneration, nutrient cycling, predation, habitat maintenance, waste decomposition and pest control. Students also participated in various competitions organised by the college. They also visited the botanical garden and Grass Museum inside the forest college campus.

Feedback

We visited central academy for state forest service Coimbatore at forest college for national wildlife week celebration. They conducted many competition like Essay writing, quiz competition, ppt presentation etc. V. Thirumarudaran IFS gave the awesome speech about wildlife week celebration it was very information for us. And also we visited botanical garden and Gans museum. The Gans museum is so amazing and wonderful experience. We see Elephant skull, Ancient equipment etc in Gans museum. We also seen the documentary film in the title of "Elephant Whispers" was such a beautiful film. This is a beautiful and great opportunity for us.

Thanking you
