

Extension Report 2016 – 2017

Department of Economics and Economics with Logistics and Freight Management conducted an Awareness Programme on Government Plans and its benefits for differently abled persons and Employment Opportunities in association with NSS in the adopted villages on 26.12.2016. Mr.K.Jegathesan, District Differently Abled Welfare Officer, Tirupur was given the motivational speech and ideas to our students and public.

As a part of extension activity both III B.A students of Department of Economics and Economics with Logistics and Freight Management were participated in the NSS Camp and collected the statistical information regarding socio- economic profile of the differently abled persons and their percentage of disability and also details of leprosy affected persons and other health related problems in the selected villages.