Aliyar ArivuThirukovil

To motivate the students on physical and mental fitness, they were first taken to Aliyar Arivuthirukovil (Temple of Consciousness). In a beautiful natural setting at the foothills of the Westerns Ghats and in view of the Aliyar reservoir, the Temple of Consciousness is the focus for a silent revolution, transforming the lives of thousands of people, irrespective of creed, color, race, religion or nationality. All the students meditated for 10 minutes and enjoyed the spiritual center with the silent nature walk.

To understand the importance of water preservation, the students were taken to Aliyar Dam. They enjoyed the scenic beauty of the dam structure, wrapped with rich green trees. Students were educated how to be environmental friendly.

Finally the students visited the Palaru Veeranjaneya Temple in Shanmughapuram. The temple is virtually inside the river as occasionally one has to wade through the river to reach the temple. The temple location is elegant that it is worth a visit. The trip reinforced the faculty and student relationship and enhanced the lateral thinking capacity.
